POLICY

Pathways Abilities Society Board of Directors is committed to ensuring continuous, solid organizational leadership. The board meets minimally eight times per year. The executive director, in addition to providing monthly reports, corresponds with the board via email, apprising them of society activities. They consult with the President and Secretary Treasurer regularly ensuring they are aware of society operations. The board President has keys for the society, the executive director's office, desk and file cabinets. They have the necessary codes to access all society information.

Pathways Abilities Society provides board members with access to a comprehensive Board Handbook online that is updated as changes to documents occur. The Board Handbook includes the Pathways Abilities Society Constitution and Bylaws.

The Constitution and Bylaws outline director and society's operations and how board members govern and are governed.

When a director resigns or opts not to run for another term, they are responsible for recruiting and proposing a potential replacement. However, all board members are responsible for recruiting and mentoring potential new directors to fill vacancies. Directors collectively assess annually their replacement requirements prior to the Annual General Meeting. The board composition strives to represent the diversity of the community. Directors are sought based on their skills, experience and expertise in the community living sector, finance, fundraising, community relations, law, marketing, public relations, human resources, strategic planning, risk management, resources planning, project planning and must be committed to creating inclusive, welcoming communities. The nominating committee screens prospective members and presents nominations to the membership at the Annual General Meeting.

Pathways Abilities Society has a comprehensive policies and procedures which are updated regularly. All polices and procedures are available on Pathways' website, through ShareVision and a memory stick with the policies and procedures is available at all service sites. The board of director's approves all new and revised policies unless otherwise specified by a board motion.

Performance evaluations and job description reviews occur annually. The board President coordinates the executive director's evaluation and provides regular performance feedback.

The management team is made up of the executive director and management personnel which includes the Nurse (LPN) position. The team operates collectively and each is able to direct the day-to-day operations of the society.

The leadership team is made up of the executive director, management personnel and bargaining unit supervisors. The team has a general working knowledge of all society services.

The management and leadership teams are responsible for mentoring staff to assume leadership roles. The team ensures through training, coaching and orientations that the skills and knowledge identified in management and supervisor's job descriptions are developed to ensure that the organization is able to function to full capacity in the event of a leadership change.

Employees interested in further career development and/or leadership positions contact the People and Culture Manager or designate to discuss their goals, aspirations and qualifications.

The executive director or designate develops:

- A leadership Succession Plan and updates it annually in the month of January.
- A board of directors Succession Plan for the board's consideration annually in the month of May.
- Succession Plan Action Plans. They update the leadership action plan with actions taken minimally three times per year. They update the board of director's action plan with actions taken minimally two times per year.
