PREAMBLE

In the event that services provided are changed, reduced or ended in an unplanned or unanticipated manner, it is important that Pathways Abilities Society is ready to respond to the change.

POLICY

Pathways Abilities Society will be ready to respond to any change in service by making a plan that has as a first priority the safety and wellbeing of the people being served.

The agency is prepared to respond to unplanned changes to a service including:

- Cuts in funding that require a cut in the amount or type of supports offered to individuals.
- Change in service delivery model.
- Cessation of funding to a specific service which requires that the service stops operating.
