Join Us...
Social distancing doesn't have to mean social isolation.

Kudoz, Real Talk, Meraki, and friends — in partnership with Burnaby Association for Community Inclusion, posAbilities, Kinsight, and InWithForward have created a web site to connect with others.

Their ambition has been to re-imagine social services; to build a future support system that functions more like a trampoline, not just a safety net.

Every week, they offer up a range of experiences to connect neurodiverse folks with self, community, and the wider world. These experiences will take place online, using YouTube, Facebook Live, Zoom and over the phone, for those without Internet access. They offer tech support for those new to digital platforms. All of the experiences are designed to be doable and safe, and honour social distancing.

Things to do and try

Tech Help

Events this week

Activities include Natural Wellness, Music groups, Dance, Art Show, Karaoke and much, much more. Check out their weekly calendar and sign up for their weekly newsletter. You can even create & host your own digital experiences (with their trusty support) at <https://www.comakedo.ca>

How are we doing?

Are you satisfied with our services? Pathways would like to know how we are doing so far this year.

Could you please follow this link <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/pathwayscheckin2021> and answer this six question survey. Let us know how we are doing and where you think we could improve.

When you attend the Activity Service you must bring the following each day: a backpack, lunch which requires no heating and with containers that can either be returned or disposed of, a refillable water bottle, a city bus pass if you have one, handyDART pass if you have one, any personal care or personal support supplies you require, medication and the correct documentation if you need to take them while at Pathways, recreational gear which will be specified i.e. a swimsuit, towel, hiking boots, etc. To help us ensure items are returned to you please label them discreetly.

Just a reminder, you must call this number 250-763-4837 Ext. 1, if you are not attending on a scheduled day. You can leave a message.

Thank you!
